Leadership Resources: www.wastatepta.org/leadership

In the “Resources” section of the Washington State PTA website you will find resources available exclusively to PTA members. This page contains PTA & the Law Resources, Leadership Packet materials, Money Matters, and a variety of resources for PTA officers and members. To access the resources site before October 1, 2011, logon using “PTAmember” as your user name and “leader” as your password; beginning October 1, 2011 the user name and password will be the same as on the back of your National PTA Membership Card.

WSPTA Vision

“Making every child’s potential a reality.”

WSPTA Mission

PTA is

- a powerful voice for all children.
- a relevant resource for families and communities.
- a strong advocate for the education and well-being of every child.

The Purpose of the Nominating Committee

The charge of the Nominating Committee is to recognize and recruit the most qualified people available for the PTA positions. It is the most important committee in PTA. Having qualified people step into leadership positions in a local unit, council, region or at the state level will ensure success for many years into the future. The work of this committee is paramount to fulfilling our mission as PTAs.

Members of the Nominating Committee must be elected by the general membership. Committee work includes holding confidential meetings, reviewing nominations, and searching for the best qualified candidates for leadership roles in your PTA.

When selecting good candidates for your nominating committee, look for people with tact, integrity, discretion, and someone who is capable of standing up for what they believe in. Sound judgment, familiarity with the needs of your PTA and skill in evaluating possible nominees are essential. Confidentiality is a must, as committee members will hold extremely honest discussions and must agree to only announce the names of the nominees, not the conversation around those choices or the names that were not submitted for nomination.

Early election of the Nominating Committee is ideal so the committee can begin its work. Consider electing your Nominating Committee at the first general meeting in the fall so they can keep their eyes open for candidates all year long. To plan backwards from deadlines, keep in mind officers must be elected before April 30th to be in compliance with the WSPTA Bylaws and the Nominating Committee must make its report to the general membership 15 days prior to the election. To be eligible for election to an office, candidates must have been a member of a PTA for 30 days prior to the election, although it need not be the PTA in which they are seeking an office. Once elected, officers must be a member of the PTA in which they were elected in order to take office.

Being a member of this committee is an honor given by your membership because they believe in your judgment and have confidence you will keep the best interest of your association at the forefront. Celebrate this committee and continue the great work you all do each day for children and youth.

This booklet provides detailed information on how to elect a Nominating Committee, how the Nominating Committee seeks and selects qualified nominees for PTA leadership, and answers the frequently asked questions regarding the duties of the Nominating Committee.

Build a Nominating Committee Notebook

Each unit/council should build a Nominating Committee Notebook that can be used by the committee and will include necessary information. Below is a list of suggested items to include in the notebook:

- Date the Nominating Committee Report is due to the board of directors. (Report must be given to all members 15 days prior to the general membership meeting at which elections will be held.)
- Dates of PTA events for the year.
- List of active PTA members. (A membership roster can be downloaded from the WSPTA membership site.)
- A sample "Recommendation for Nomination form." This is the form that will be sent out to the members for recommending someone to the Nominating Committee. (A sample form is in this section.)
- Contact information for the Council Officer, Service Delivery Team member or Region Director.

Electing a Nominating Committee

The "Uniform Bylaws of the Washington State PTA" [Article 5, Section 5(a) Local Unit and Article 6, Section 5(a) Council] REQUIRE that the Nominating Committee be elected at a general membership meeting at least thirty (30) days preceding the election of officers. This committee should never be appointed by the president nor be selected by asking for volunteers. No member should serve on this committee unless elected as specified in the Bylaws. The president and principal are not eligible to be elected to, or serve on the Nominating Committee and may have no part in their deliberations.

The members of the Nominating Committee have a tremendous influence on the future of your PTA unit/council and should themselves be very carefully selected. This is an elected committee, not one appointed by the president or selected by asking for volunteers.

Nominating Committee members are viewed as wise, tactful, circumspect, persuasive, and as having broad acquaintance with the membership. Members of the Nominating Committee should be elected on merit and ability -- never on popularity.

Members of the Nominating Committee are not barred from becoming nominees for elected office. Thus, committee members cannot be deprived of the right to hold office by being elected to the Nominating Committee. No person may serve on this committee for two consecutive years.

Candidates for the Nominating Committee must have been a member of the PTA unit for at least 30 days prior to the election of the Nominating Committee.

The Nominating Committee is to consist of at least three (3) members and two alternates.

Nominating Committee Meeting with President

After the election of the Nominating Committee, the committee should meet with the PTA President. This meeting should address the following topics:

- The president can't be involved in the Nominating Committee process or selection of officers.
- Give the committee this section of the Leadership Packet as well as the unit's/council's Nominating Committee Notebook.
- The importance of this committee's ability to hold one's own council and have open and frank discussions about individuals that they are considering for nomination.
- Importance of confidentiality.
- Committee calendar. Go over dates, it is best to work backwards from the General Membership meeting date.
Example:
 - April 16th General Membership meeting where elections will be held;
 - April 1st Nominating Committee Report sent to members;
 - March 29th Nominating Committee Report is due to Board of Directors;
 - March 10th Recommendation for Nominations forms due to the Nominating Committee.

Personal and General Qualifications

Nominating Committee members should possess the following characteristics (Not in order of ranking importance).

- Interest in and enthusiasm for the purposes and programs of the PTA unit/council.
- Willingness to work and devote considerable time to furthering the purposes and programs of the PTA unit/council.
- Tact, integrity and discretion; ability to hold one's own counsel.
- Courage to express ideas and to defend one's convictions.
- Sound judgment and skill in evaluating possible nominees.
- Knowledge of the PTA unit/council goals.
- General knowledge of potential candidates' qualifications and abilities.
- Be a member in good standing for at least thirty (30) days prior to the election of the Nominating Committee.

Nominating Committee First Meeting

After the election of the Nominating Committee, the committee should set a time and place for an initial meeting to establish a timetable and to begin the consideration of PTA members as potential nominees. An early first meeting will help ensure that sufficient time is given to consideration of all recommendations and suggestions.

The Nominating Committee needs the following information from the Board of Directors:

- Date of the general membership meeting where elections will be held
- Date the Nominating Committee Report is due to the members
- Nominating Committee Handbook
- Membership roster

At its first meeting, the Nominating Committee should:

- Set dates for meetings
- Change/format/build a Recommendation for Nomination form to be sent to the members with a due date on it. For sample Recommendation for Nomination form see page 7 of this publication.
- Make sure everyone understand that no one can contact a potential nominee unless everyone on the committee has directed this person to do so.

Selecting the Nominees

The committee's major role and responsibility is to nominate the best qualified candidate(s) for each office to give careful consideration, both as an individual and as a committee, to the requirements and scope of the offices to be filled as well as to the qualifications and abilities needed to fill them, and to match these requirements to the qualifications of the members.

The committee should ask for recommendations from PTA board members and from the PTA membership and consider the vision and mission of the organization as well. If it is likely that students will be transferring in from another school (e.g. elementary school students moving up to middle school or consolidation of schools) be sure to reach out to the PTAs in those schools as well.

Regardless of the number of times a name is recommended, that individual must be evaluated equally and by the same criteria as all other possible nominees. The committee is not required to select nominees only from the recommendations it receives. The committee is obligated to seek out all people who would best serve the PTA unit/council in a particular office.

Secure a copy of the current membership list so due consideration can be given to all qualified members.

A presidential nominee should not be asked whom he/she would like for running mates. This decision rests with the Nominating Committee. Nominees for vice president, secretary, or treasurer should be selected with the same care as a presidential nominee.

Selection of nominees should be an orderly process. Open and frank discussions about potential nominees must be held between members of the Nominating Committee.

These discussions must be kept strictly confidential, and no information, including the reasons for accepting or rejecting a recommendation, should ever leave the committee meeting.

The Nominating Committee should not meet to consider any potential nominee unless all committee members have been notified of the meeting.

NOTE: Article 5, Section 6 of the Uniform Bylaws of the Washington State PTA outline the eligibility requirements for a nominee for a PTA unit office, and Article 6, Section 6 outlines the requirements for a nominee for a PTA council office. A copy of the Bylaws is included in the Leadership Packet, and can also be downloaded from the Washington State PTA website under the Resources tab.

Criteria for Selecting Nominees

It is important that the Nominating Committee carefully consider each potential nominee. The well-being of the PTA unit/council must be the top priority. The following criteria should be considered and evaluated.

The potential nominee:

- Must be a PTA member (although not necessarily a member of your PTA) 30 days preceding the election. It is very important that this is confirmed.
- Must be willing to receive and attend required PTA training for the position to which they will be elected.
- Must be enthusiastic and supportive of the PTA unit/council.
- Must believe in the objects and purposes of PTA and believe that PTA is the best organization for working for children and youth.
- Should have previous experience in PTA, though other organization work may also be considered.

- Should have knowledge of the PTA organization and its role in the school and community.
- Should be relied upon to give PTA a satisfactory level of priority and commitment.
- Should have good relationships with people.
- Must be fair and objective and able to subordinate personal interests to the interests and well-being of the PTA unit/council.
- Should have vision and be innovative.
- Must be at least 18 years old to be elected as a PTA officer.

Nominating Committee Report

A written and signed report of the Nominating Committee must be submitted to the PTA unit/council membership at least fifteen (15) days prior to the election WSPTA Uniform Bylaws, Local Unit Article 5, Section 5(b) and Council Article 6, Section 5(b).

The written report of the nominees should be signed by all the Nominating Committee members.

The report is read to the PTA membership, by the Nominating Committee chair, just prior to the election. After the report is read, additional nominations may be made from the floor of the meeting by any PTA member. The Nominating Committee is automatically discharged when its report is presented to the membership. (when did we start asking for the membership number on this report – this doesn't match what is read on the next page)

Conducting Local Unit or Council Elections

The standing rules of the local unit may provide that voting for officer or Nominating Committee positions be by mail or by electronic transmission if the name of each candidate is contained in the notice of meeting or set forth in a record accompanying the notice. Any vote cast by electronic transmission must be received no later than the date set forth in the notice of the meeting. The local unit standing rules may provide that members voting by mail or electronic transmission are deemed present for all purposes of quorum, count of votes, and percentages of total voting power present, or only for the purposes of the election(s) conducted at the meeting. (From “Uniform Bylaws of the Washington State PTA” [Article 5 Local Unit, Section 3 Membership and Voting and Article 6 Council, Section 3 Membership and Voting.])

Individuals may join your PTA/PTSA upon arrival at any meeting and be able to vote at that meeting. However they can’t run for office unless they have been a PTA/PTSA member in good standing for at least 30 days, although it doesn’t have to be your PTA .

If you are voting by ballot it is critical that no one leave the meeting until the voting results are read. If an election is contested there may be a need to revote in case no one candidate receives a majority.

(NOTE: This is sample wording; individual situations may vary. This example assumes that electronic voting has not been authorized. For more information on electronic voting, go to the Washington State PTA website: www.wastatepta.org.)

Sample Script for Conducting the Election

PRESIDENT:
 “The next business before the unit is the election of officers. The Secretary will please read that section of the bylaws pertaining to the election of officers.” (The secretary would then read, from the WSPTA Uniform Bylaws, articles related to elections: Article 5, Section 6 for local PTA units; or Article 6, Section 6 for PTA councils). “In accordance with the WSPTA Uniform Bylaws, we will proceed with the election of officers.”

PRESIDENT:
 “We will now hear the report of the Nominating Committee.”

CHAIRMAN of the NOMINATING COMMITTEE:
 “Madam/Mr. President, (pause for recognition), the nominating committee places in nomination the following:

For president: _____
 For vice president: _____
 For secretary: _____
 For treasurer: _____.”

Signed _____, Chairman

The chairman then hands the written report to the president and retires to her/his seat.

PRESIDENT:
 “The Nominating Committee has named the following persons as candidates for offices of the PTA/PTSA for the coming year:

For president: _____
 For vice president: _____
 For secretary: _____
 For treasurer: _____.”

“_____’s name has been placed in nomination for the office of president. Are there further nominations from the floor?” (Always allow plenty of time.)

Note: A person does not have to be present to be nominated from the floor. However, they must give their permission to be nominated. If, after waiting a reasonable time, and no other nomination is forthcoming, the president may close nominations by a general consent motion, in the following manner:

PRESIDENT:
 “Hearing no further nominations for president, if there are no objections, the chair will declare the nominations for president closed.” (Pause) “Hearing no objection, the nominations for president are closed.”

This procedure is followed for each office in sequence in which the nominations were made.

Candidates should be introduced and names listed on a flip chart or other visual aid. The vote is then taken. The Bylaws provide that when there is but one candidate for each office the vote may be by voice, but in the event that someone is nominated from the floor or a double slate is presented by the nominating committee, it becomes necessary for the chair to appoint tellers who are instructed to take a count of those members eligible to vote (those whose membership service fees have been paid for the current year). They also distribute, collect and count the ballots and report to the unit the results of the vote. A majority of those voting is necessary to elect.

The following example illustrates the form in which tellers’ reports should be made:

Members present eligible to vote 42
 Number of votes cast 40
 Necessary to elect 21
 (More than half the eligible voters present)

NOTE, under Washington law, in order to be elected a candidate must receive a majority of all eligible voters who are present. If no one candidate receives a majority of the all eligible voters present, even if they receive a majority of votes cast for a particular position, then a run-off election should be conducted, limited to the two candidates who received the most votes in the initial election.

For president:
Mrs. B. received 26
Mr. A. received 12
Mrs. C. received 2

This process is followed for each office.

Signed: _____

(Tellers) _____

Every name for which a vote has been cast must be reported, the one receiving the largest vote for each office being stated first. The tellers never announce who is elected. Their report is given to the president who makes the announcement.

The president declares who is elected as follows:

PRESIDENT:
“The officers you have elected for the _____ PTA for 20__ to 20__ are:
President: _____,
Vice President: _____,
Secretary: _____,
Treasurer: _____.”

Recording the Election Results in the Minutes

The Secretary should record the results of the election and should preserve the ballots cast for each office until it is apparent the results will not be challenged, so that if the election is questioned, the vote may be verified by a recount.

NOTE: Now that your officers are elected they must be entered into WSPTA’s online enrollment system as soon as possible so that they will begin receiving information from the state office to help them get started.

Frequently Asked Questions

Nominations from the Floor

- Q: What if a person who wants to serve in an office is not nominated by the Nominating Committee?
- A: Every qualified person has the right to be nominated from the floor in the event s/he wants to run for an office and is not on the slate of candidates offered by the Nominating Committee. This is a protection which assures that if any member feels the Nominating Committee ignored the best qualified candidate for a position, that person can still be nominated and run for the office. The choice of who is elected rests, as always, with the membership. In order to run for election candidates must be a PTA/PTSA member for 30 days prior to the elections, although they need not be a member of your PTA until they take office.

Purpose of the Nominating Committee

- Q: Why is the Nominating Committee elected?
- A: This committee is elected to give the membership the choice on who it believes is best qualified as future leaders of the PTA. Election by the membership to the nominating committee is a very high honor. This is the one committee on which the president is not an ex-officio member.
- Q: What is the duty of the Nominating Committee?
- A: The responsibility of the committee is to identify, recruit and nominate the best qualified candidate for each elected position. To do this, the committee members must be committed to PTA; be willing to invest time into making it the best possible organization; and, be capable of holding frank, honest, candid discussions about the potential nominees knowing that all conversations are confidential.

Qualifications of Nominees

- Q: One of the children of the individual who has been nominated for office was just convicted of armed robbery. Should that nominee be asked to step aside so someone else can be nominated?
- A: No. The crimes of one individual are not the crimes of another. The crimes of the child are not the crimes of the parent.
- Q: If a member of the Nominating Committee has knowledge of theft by a nominee — should they share that information with the committee? (For example, they were in Scouts together and the person running for office was convicted of embezzlement of Scout funds.)
- A: Absolutely. The committee needs this information to determine the best qualified candidates for the PTA. However, if there are only suspicions or if there was no conviction, then it would not be appropriate to share this information.

Principal’s Role

- Q: The principal wants to run for PTA president because he wants to force the PTA to raise funds to buy school supplies and other things. What can be done?
- A: Interference in the corporate affairs of a private, nonprofit association is serious. However, any member has the right to run for an office. If this individual is the wrong person and will damage the organization, the members will need to elect a better qualified candidate. If this principal is using his or her position to intimidate members, then contact your region director or the State PTA office for assistance. It may also be a conflict of interest for the principal to be elected president of the PTA.

Timeline for Nominating Committee

- Q: When is the Nominating Committee elected?
- A: The Nominating Committee should be elected at the first general membership meeting in the fall. If that doesn’t happen, it can be elected at any subsequent general meeting.

Nominating Committee Members Being Nominated for Office

- Q: Can you be a nominee for office if you are on the Nominating Committee?
- A: Being a member of the Nominating Committee does not mean you may not be considered as a nominee for office. Individuals being considered for a position should be excused from any discussion regarding that position, and the remaining Nominating Committee members will decide whose name to put forward. The fact that a member of the Nominating Committee did not participate in the discussion of one or more positions should be included in the Nominating Committee report.

candidates must have been a PTA member for 30 days prior to being elected as a PTA officer, although they do not need to be a member of your PTA until they take office.

Nominee’s PTA Membership Requirements

- Q: How many days does a candidate for office need to be a PTA member before being selected for nomination by the Nominating Committee?
- A: The WSPTA Uniform Bylaws does not specify how many days candidates must be a member before being selected for nomination by the Nominating Committee; however

Electronic Voting

- Q: For what purposes can electronic voting be used?
- A: Electronic voting can only be used to elect the nominating committee and officers, and then only if specifically authorized in the local unit or council standing rules.
- Q: What is the recommended way to conduct an election using electronic voting?
- A: There are some suggested guidelines about different ways to handle electronic voting available on the WSPTA website, www.wastatepta.org. Click on the Leadership Resources link, and scroll down to “Elections.”
